BANK OF NAPA APPOINTS NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

NAPA, CA --- November 30, 2009. Bank of Napa, N.A. (OTCBB: BNNP) announced the appointment of Michael L. Lundstrom as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Lundstrom brings with him over thirteen years of financial services experience, having worked for Moss Adams, LLP; Vintage Bank; and RSM McGladrey. Lundstrom is both a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), earning his BA from Gustavus Adolphus College in Minnesota. Lundstrom, who will be responsible for all financial and accounting functions for the bank, resides in Napa.

Bank of Napa President Chief Executive Officer Tom LeMasters stated, “We are fortunate to have someone with Mike’s background and experience join our bank at this time in our history. In particular, Mike’s audit experience will be very helpful to our bank, as we expect to experience a continued increase in market share. Mike will add depth to our management team as we manage the increase in activity”.

Bank of Napa also announced the resignation of Robert J. Patterson from its board of directors. Mr. Patterson announced his resignation for health related reasons at the bank’s Board of Director meeting on November 18, 2009.
